Online verification with Digital ID™ is fast, safe and secure. You can verify your identity online if you have one document from each of these lists: Photo ID • Australian driver licence or learner permit • Australian passport (an expired passport may be used if it expired less than three years ago) • ImmiCard issued by the Australian Government Other government-issued ID • Medicare card • Foreign passport with Australian visa • Australian birth certificate • Australian citizenship certificate • Pensioner concession card • Health care card • Commonwealth seniors health card Your identity documents must be current and show the same name and date of birth. If you successfully verify your identity online, you'll just need to present one acceptable photo ID document at Australia Post when you lodge your application. Verify your identity in-person To verify in-person, you must take three original proof of identity documents with you to a participating Australia Post outlet (External link). If your organisation has asked you to get a Working with Children Check, or you've used our interactive tool and determined that you need a Check, you can apply in just four steps. SIGNATURE REQUIREMENTS If you are: 16 years old or older - you must sign your application. You must show the staff original documents, not photocopies. Before you begin, it's important to know that your application must be true and correct, so make sure that all dates, names and details are accurate on your application form. It is an offence to provide false or misleading information in the application. ACCEPTABLE PROOF OF IDENTITY DOCUMENTS If you are aged 16 years old or over You need to provide three documents, one of which must be a primary document. Documents that have been corrected or changed and initialled are not acceptable. PROOF OF IDENTITY DOCUMENTS When you attend your interview, you must provide current documents that prove your identity for registration purposes (proof of identity documents).
